

Transitional fiscal costs and demographic factors in shifting from unfunded to funded pension in Latin America

Naciones Unidas, CEPAL, Development Finance Unit, International Trade and Development, Finance Division - Fabio Bertranou

Description: -

-
Nature conservation -- Germany.
Restoration ecology -- Germany.
Church and state -- Russia.
Liberty of conscience.
Freedom of religion.
Latin language -- Word formation
Greek language -- Suffixes and prefixes
Pensions -- Latin America
Transitional fiscal costs and demographic factors in shifting from unfunded to funded pension in Latin America

-
65
Beihefte zu den Veröffentlichungen für Naturschutz und Landschaftspflege in Baden-Württemberg
Serie Financiamiento del desarrollo -- 88
Transitional fiscal costs and demographic factors in shifting from unfunded to funded pension in Latin America

Notes: Includes bibliographical references (p. 21-22)
This edition was published in 1999

Filesize: 41.57 MB

Tags: #Transition: #OECD #Misrepresentation #Of #Public #Pensions

Is Latin America Prepared for an Aging Population?

Even workers making low wages would have been better off with private savings.

4 Factors Influencing Local Government Financial Decisions

Population ageing is a secular trend that has been getting all the publicity see Figure 3; the latest issue of The Economist also has a report on Ageing.

Is Latin America Prepared for an Aging Population?

An additional to the program on April 23. Part of the calculation is an adjustment in the figures to reflect inflation. In general, the loss of revenues in the short run has a long-term counterpart in lower future spending.

Euromoney Latin America: An end to boom and bust?

Twenty-seven companies recorded FY2019 pension income i.

Related Books

- Financial and investment sector integration in Southern Africa - perpetuating imbalances or promoting
- Realism and evidence in the philosophy of mind
- Biao zhun dian ma ben = - Piaozhun dianmaben
- Changing styles of inspection - a study of three types of inspection in one school
- Guillaumes interior architecture - containing twelve folio plates, showing twelve designs and eight