Economics (Bachelor of Business Admin.)

Whether you want a finance position at a Fortune 500 company, to work as a marketing manager in your favorite industry, or to become an accountant at a Big Four firm such as Deloitte, the opportunities are endless.

Economics and Business Administration, BS < Northeastern University

Your business administration major allows you to customize a mix of management, marketing, and finance classes to fit your career goals. To start, business degrees are usually taught in a separate business school, while economics degrees tend to fall under a school of social sciences.

Business Admin Major: Economics

It is a very important factor for political decisions, since it addresses topics such as GDP, inflation, taxes, and duties. All admission requirements must be fulfilled by the documentation deadline.

Master of Business Admin. (MBA) Online

The top up programme for AP degrees will therefore correspond to 120 ECTS, and students will be required to complete 120 ECTS during the top-up programme. The department allows a total of two courses from EAP to be transferred in toward major requirements as long as they have been reviewed and approved. It is recommended that students familiarize themselves with the major requirements as stated in this catalog and consult with a faculty advisor prior to choosing elective courses intended to meet major requirements.
