Wildlife Division

July to October is the coolest, driest and dustiest season.

Tanzania Up Close: Culture, Conservation, and Wildlife

The Hadza maintain a traditional way of life despite the pressures of encroachment from outsiders. Sunglasses, hat, sun lotion, lip-balm, insect repellents and your own toiletry requirements, small first-aid kit, a spare pair of glasses or lenses if you are using one. As the day comes to a close, visit a nearby community to learn how they relax at the end of the day.

Travel Information —

Tanzania National Parks Authority TANAPA is a parastatal organization responsible for the management of National Parks. The Hadza people have lived in the area around Lake Eyasi in Tanzania's eastern Rift Valley for thousands of years.

Ask your local Guide for the best offer to buy yourself or your friend items like; Batiks and Tingatinga paintings, Ebony carvings such as cutlery, bracelets, furniture and sculptures.

Wildlife —

In recent years, the Tanzania National Parks Authority TANAPA has initiated corrective actions to involve the local community in conservation efforts, which is aimed at contribution to local economies by way of equitable benefits sharing. Check-out is at 6 pm. Interact with teachers and students, sit in on classes, and have lunch at the school.

Tanzania Wildlife Management Authority

After the classes are done for the day, join a couple of schoolchildren on their walk home to a nearby village. Depart from the ranger post for a walk in the foothills of Mt.

Wildlife Safaris —

During the dry season, they live in huts made from branches, grasses, and other natural materials, but once the heavy rains arrive they move into the shelter of local cave systems. There are no vaccinations required for entry into Tanzania.
