The History of Polygamy

He hasn't told anybody to kill anybody else. The women agreed that it was an ugly face to put on plural marriage.

A brief history of the polygamists in Colorado City, Arizona and Hildale, Utah

On a walk along the banks of the Colorado River, they talked, and after a passionate night, they reconciled. The Mormons continued to practice polygamy despite these laws, since they believed that the practice was protected by the freedom of religion clause in the Bill of Rights.

A brief history of the polygamists in Colorado City, Arizona and Hildale, Utah

The Cullom-Struble Bill with even stricter measures was debated in 1889, but the Mormon church helped to prevent its passage by promising to do away with polygamy.

Until the Hildale elections, City Hall was locked to its constituents. Once married, women seldom leave town, except for occasional forays into nearby St.

A brief history of the polygamists in Colorado City, Arizona and Hildale, Utah

But it eventually became a stronghold for the Lee's Ferry polygamists, who were excommunicated from the LDS Church in 1935 after refusing to sign an oath against polygamy. Federal and state welfare regulations do not prohibit families in polygamous marriages from receiving welfare benefits.
