The Menehune were said to use magic arrows to pierce the heart of angry people, igniting feelings of love in its place. The play was soon over; for it is only in the early part of the evening, when Br'er Rabbit first comes out after sitting still in his form all day, that he gives himself up to fun, like a boy out of school. My responses may not all ways be as quick.

harmless, and, after a moment's watching, away he went in some astonishing jumps into the forest. Sticks, driftwood, and stout poles, which the beavers cut on the banks, are piled on this and weighted with stones and mud. In winter, for five long months at least, he does nothing but sleep and eat and keep warm.

Folk of the Woods

So one morning we, along with my friend Jeremy Barnes of Neutral Milk Hotel and A Hawk and a Hacksaw , went down to the river with just a vague idea, an old wicker chair, a field recorder on a tripod and a phone camera.
