The deadline for registration was extended from 7 to 14 June. That said, if the elections are held without minimal conditions and in an atmosphere of fear, they are likely to give a pseudo-democratic mandate to many of the ethnic cleansers. Municipal Election Commissions were established at the level of the municipalities.

The names of all the comrades who served on the PLC should also be furnished to the Electoral Committee using the same email addresses as provided. On 1 and 2 June, in response to a large number of warnings from International Supervisors and OSCE permanent field staff concerning apparent registration fraud, the OSCE closed down voter registration centres to provide additional staff training.
