James' ghosts differ from those of traditional Gothic tales — frightening, often bound in chains — by appearing like their living selves. We will approach Tolkien on location — the development of his subcreative imagination by way of his professional preoccupations. Format: lectures, hands on projects, demonstrations, and practical work.

Sands Section 009 — Perception and Evaluation: Writing to Develop Thinking Skills. THIS CONTENT IS PROVIDED 'AS IS' AND IS SUBJECT TO CHANGE OR REMOVAL AT ANY TIME Basil Hallward, an artist, meets Dorian Gray and paints his portrait.

XIV Modern Literature

A deft treatment of a large theme, Howards End won widespread acclaim upon its original publication, and established Forster as one of England's most important writers--a reputation he would hold for the rest of his life, though after 1924 he lived for 46 years and never wrote another novel. The aim here will be to enhance students' enjoyment of poetry through an understanding of its nature and how it achieves its particular effects. In general lectures will concern the plays, classes and conference, the students' own writing.
