

Lives of the founders of the British Museum - with notices of its chief augmentors and other benefactors, 1570-1870.

Tru bner - spaceneb.us.to: Lives Of The Founders Of The British Museum: With Notices Of Its Chief Augmentors And Other Benefactors, 1570

Description: -

-Lives of the founders of the British Museum - with notices of its chief augmentors and other benefactors, 1570-1870.

-Lives of the founders of the British Museum - with notices of its chief augmentors and other benefactors, 1570-1870.

Notes: In 2 vols.

This edition was published in 1870

Filesize: 64.81 MB

Tags: #7540510

William Henry Flower

Collected by the Reverend H.

Edward Edwards (1812)

Some of the leaders of that party formed a scheme to export, it to the Continent for a like purpose. Early in 1615, Cotton had an interview with Gondomar in relation to the progress of the marriage negotiation in Spain. For his extraordinary services as a librarian, in 1869 he was by , becoming a Knight Commander of the.

William Henry Flower

As regards the monarchs, it would be hard to fix on any, since the dawn of the Revival of Learning, who evinced less concern for the progress and diffusion of learning than did the first and second princes of the House of Hanover. Collected by Solomon Da Costa, formerly of Amsterdam, and chiefly between the years 1720 and 1727 ; Given by the Collector, in 1759, to the Trustees of the British Museum 'for inspection and service of the Public, as a small token of my esteem, reverence, love, and gratitude to this magnanimous Nation, and as a thanks- giving offering. It was proposed, on a subsequent day, to call Yelverton to the bar for the third time, in order to see if he would then offer the apology which before he had refused.

7540510

The selection comprised 321 very choice specimens of early German and Italian masters ; and was acquired for the sum of £2390.

Edward Edwards (1812

Whether estimated by mere money value, or by a truer standard, the third, in order of time, of the Foundation- Digitized by VjOOQIC 10
EARLY COLLECTORS. Collected, under firman of the Ottoman Porte, between the years 1801 and 1810 — and chiefly in the years 1802 and 1803— by Thomas Bruce, Earl of Elgin Died 14 October, 1841. Brewer's Account ov SirB, Cotton's Acquisition of State Papers.

Lives of the Founders of the British Museum : With Notices of its Chief Augmentors and Other Benefactors, 1570

In: BLJ 9 1983 pp. It was then obvious that a new Department ought to be made. His chief claim to honourable memory is that he settled the Cottonian Library on the British nation for ever, and thus made its founder, Sir Robert, the virtual and first Founder op the British Museum.

Related Books

- Complete book of yoga
- Volunteer assistance in the library
- Brief historical review.
- Genealogia e história do imigrante Johann Friedrich Dockhorn \(João Frederico\) e seus descendentes,
- Apulecio Dellasino doro