According to my interpretation, the real significance lies in the fact that the era name was taken from the preface to a set of 32 poems. These are usually genuine Achillea millefolium stalks that have been cut and prepared for such purposes, or any form of wooden rod or sticks the quality ranging from cheap hardwood to very expensive , etc.

While European literature draws back from banal events of daily life, seeing them as transient, seeking immortality instead in thought and spirit, Chinese literature draws back from interiority for the same reason, seeing immortality in oneness with nature. When thick material was to be cracked, the underside was thinned by carving with a knife.

I like this scrap-book quality that allows Hacker to stick down anything he personally has found interesting. Then, the lines are appropriately changed any old yin lines into young yang lines, and any old yang lines into young yin lines , which—with the young lines in the original hexagram remaining the same—results in a second, different, hexagram, the commentarial material on which is then also studied. Comment: Because the yang line is in a yin position there will be disaster and sadness.

Henry Wei's brother Wei Tat wrote 'An Exposition of the I-Ching', an outstanding book I shall describe in the second section.

Classical Chinese Poetry: An Anthology by David Hinton

Henry Wei's translation was in part urged by Blofeld's comments, and Wei in turn criticises both Wilhelm and Blofeld. The fifth line, undivided, affords the most illustrious instance of seeking union and attachment.
