Sidney A Nolan Jr. (1925)

His simplified depiction of Kelly in his armour has become an iconic Australian image. In 1978 he donated 252 of his Gallipoli drawings and paintings to the Australian War Memorial in memory of his brother.

Sidney Nolan by Barry Pearce (Paperback, 2007) for sale online

The bright yellow Ripolin which draws attention to the bathing figure and the mounted troopers in the earlier version is nowhere to be seen and rather than the human drama being the key focus, it is the relationship between the figures and their environment that emerges as most significant. Sidney Nolan: A Life, the author tells us in the introduction, was written at the behest of her publishers and so may be taken as a commissioned work.

About Sidney Nolan

This Dreaming, Spinning Thing was commissioned by as a companion film to Nolan's 1967 retrospective exhibition at the. There Reed and his wife, Sunday, encouraged talented writers and painters to treat their home as a place of emotional openness and artistic growth. In 1977, Sunday Reed generously donated 25 of the 26 works on display to the National Gallery of Australia.
