But Mailer had a point, too. The second chapter comes straight from The Ticket That Exploded, while the third is drawn from The Soft Machine.

Dead Fingers Talk by William S. Burroughs

Dead Fingers Talk, like many of Burroughs' works, was controversial upon its release.

Dead Fingers Talk

The book combines sections from Burroughs' earlier novels, Naked Lunch, The Soft Machine and The Ticket That Exploded, in an attempt to create a new narrative. Many people do not even know the book existed.
