SRI RAMAKRISHNA PARAMAHAMSA DHYANA STOTRAM

The date of gauDapAda, the author of the mANDUKya kArikAs, is usually inferred from the tradition that he was Sankara's teacher's teacher, and from references to the mANDUKya kArikAs in other works.

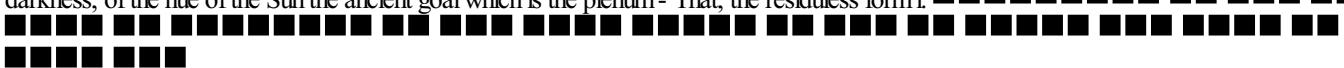

Sishya: I see with the help of a lamp Guru: Let that be so. I have no such intentions. These vakyas are called— Prajnanam Brahma —Lakshana Vakyam Tat Tvam Asi— Upadesa Vakyam Ayam Atma Brahma— Sakshatkara Vakyam Aham Brahmasmi—Anubhava Vakyam I differ the statement that these vakyas fail to capture the glory.

Sankaracharya's Eka Sloki

Pratah Samarana Stotram

This is the pahala-sruti description of the fruit of this Vedantic prayer. At dawn I bow to that which is called the Highest Self which is beyond darkness, of the hue of the Sun the ancient goal which is the plenum - That, the residueless form i.
