Information Canada - Canada: Chretien government resists calls for increased social spending

1st meeting Warsaw, Poland, May 20, 2015 - 10 countries participated.

- Country cases from Canada, UK and the Russian Federation showcased various approaches to making it easier for citizens to understand government budgets by adopting Citizens Budgets, information portals, student projects, and a core curriculum for schools. Pre-meeting PEMPA survey also conducted to determine status of budget literacy and transparency reforms.

2nd meeting via videoconference September 14, 2015 - 7 countries participated.

- Review of learnings taken from international Budget Literacy Practices based on a survey of over 30 Countries conducted by World Bank.

3rd meeting, Zagreb, Croatia, December 1-4, 2015 - 10 countries participated.

- Key lessons learned from Croatia: Incorporating transparency standards into legislation is a must to enhance transparency and proper transparency standards must be put in place across all government levels. The key to successful reforms, better budget transparency and citizen engagement is close collaboration between ministries and government levels, and leveraging modern IT technologies (e-government).
