To select just the code use Shift+Arrow for precision; then use Ctrl+C to copy the code to the clipboard — ready for pasting in the Define Delayed Codes window. ¤ You should be sure to create the codes and structures you wish to hide in the document text area first -- i. In the Contents pane of the Styles Editor, place the cursor after any other codes, then from the property bar in the Styles Editor choose Arial Narrow font, then 10 point; then click OK to dismiss the Editor.

Notes ¤ Important: If you do not insert anything — even if only a single space — before exiting back to the document next topic the structure will not be created and will simply disappear. It is normally done at the bottom of the last page where you want the header, footer, or watermark to show up. This is done from the Insert menu e.
