Section 4.03.08: Supervision Tips & Utilizing the Supervision Agenda

Many of the processes used with audiotapes are used with video.

Section 4.03.08: Supervision Tips & Utilizing the Supervision Agenda

An obvious disadvantage is that it can be distracting to the supervisee if overused.

Clinical Supervision

A dialogue can develop between supervisor and supervisee as a means to share personal styles and preferences for frameworks and interventions to be used in supervision. The program is not designed to aid students in earning an educator license. It will aid the student in developing an understanding of what qualitative research is, what the types of qualitative research are, when to use it, and how to develop a well-designed research study using qualitative research methods.

Educational Leadership and Supervision EdD

Social workers should contact their regulatory board to determine course approval for continuing education credits.

Section 4.03.08: Supervision Tips & Utilizing the Supervision Agenda

It is important that the supervisee enter the supervision session mentally prepared to address these important issues.
