Petone - a history

Petone Borough Council - Māori history of the Greater Wellington region

Petone.1939.
Reference number: 1/4-019698-F
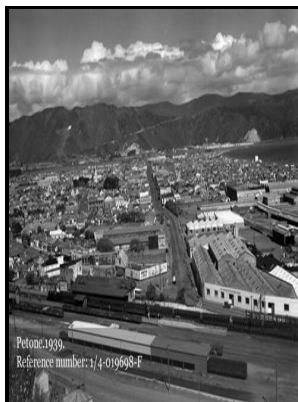

Description: -

-
Petone (N.Z.) -- HistoryPetone - a history
-Petone - a history
Notes: Includes bibliographical references (p. [257]-266) and index.
This edition was published in 1988

Filesize: 11.83 MB

Tags: #Petone #Name #Meaning #& #Petone #Family #History #at #spaceneb.us.to®

Petone Name Meaning & Petone Family History at spaceneb.us.to®

The style was applied to government buildings both big and small, particularly courthouses and post offices. The courthouse was the home of the police station for 39 of those years. A counter was built across the room at a later date.

Petone FC

Although only partially completed, Parliament House is the crowning achievement of Campbell's career e The community association with, or public esteem for the place The Petone Courthouse served the Petone community for over 80 years, initially as its first purpose built courthouse and then as the police station. Historian Gavin McLean describes the building as 'Wellington's provincial memorial but in many ways the New Zealand monument to pioneer endeavour' and 'an enduring celebration of pioneering'.

Petone Name Meaning & Petone Family History at spaceneb.us.to®

The Naenae structures have been erased from the diagram. It is planned to close Petone Box in late 2013. John Campbell was the Government Architect from 1909-1922.

Hutt Valley Signalling History

The former contains a small kitchenette. The Petone site for the settlement was a poor choice mainly because it was subject to frequent flooding. In 1988 the police station at Petone was closed but the ex-courthouse continued to be used as a patrol base for a community constable and a patrol car unit.

Related Books

- Bleak house
- Lone Star field guide to Texas snakes
- Parallel database processing - text retrieval and cluster analysis using the DAP
- Federal deficit control - the legislative history of the Balanced Budget and Emergency Deficit Contr
- Vi har ham nå - roman